

Job Description and Expected Profile

- Support ARTICLE 19's advocacy work on Turkey, including public events, at international fora such as the UN and the Council of Europe
- Support the development of communications outputs for audiences internationally and in Turkey, including through monitoring current events, carrying out research and fact-checking in addition to drafting statements and other outputs.
- Support the development and implementation of strategic campaigns work on Turkey
- Other administrative / programmatic support as required
- Creative thinker with experience in working on campaigns or communications in Turkey or for international audiences
- An understanding of human rights work, with a focus on freedom of expression desirable

Language Skills

- Fluent knowledge of English

Proposed Time for the NGO Mobility Program

- April – August 2020 ( 3 months)

The program will be implemented in United Kingdom, London.