

Job Description and Expected Profile

Under the guidance of Radio Expert, the Fellow will produce news reports and features using a lens of diversity, equity and inclusion. They will report on areas such as education, arts, healthcare, government and the environment.

- Public and digital radio and extensive experience as a broadcast journalist
- Produce quality features and news reports for theport.al
- Engage with the community to report on people, issues and places
- Create regular reports for web and radio that reach a diverse population
- Participate in newsroom and station duties as needed
- Knowledge, sensitivity and/or understanding of diversity issues preferably with a regional perspective
- Academic training in journalism preferred
- Interest in and passion for public media
- Excellent verbal and written communication; computer (PC) and organizational skills are required

Language Skills

- Fluent knowledge of English

Proposed Time for the NGO Mobility Program

- April-June 2020 (3 months)

The program will be implemented in Durrës, Albania.