

Job Description and Expected Profile

- An excellent eye for the details and with a creative flair for inspiring stories and messages
- Digital to the bone, a fast learner and want to challenge your creative self with new content
- Well-organized and a team player
- Experience in communication

The fellow will lead on systemic and specific projects related communications aspects, such as:

- Content Developing
Articles and posts writing & production
Visual / audiovisual contents (with the help of our team)
Press releases, newsletter, communication reports
- Contents Delivery
Social media
Website management and updating
Campaign/event specific contents
- Communications Strategy and Management
Project specific communications
Recommendations in our existing communications strategy
Innovation in communications and ground-breaking (crazy!) ideas

Language Skills

- Fluent knowledge of English

Proposed Time for the NGO Mobility Program

- April – June 2020 (3 Months)

The program will be implemented in Tirana, Albania.