

Job Description and Expected Profile

- Support the international activities of KlgA (International Exchange Program)
- Support the organization, reporting and logistics of an international conference in Berlin and a study visit in the USA
- Participate in the activities of the global network of antisemitism
- Have at least 2-year experience in the civil society organizations
- Experience in organizations of international conferences
- Interest in antisemitism and discrimination issues
- Creative and responsible
- Experience in the citizenship education, human rights education and/or the fighting against antisemitism is an advantage

Language Skills

- Fluent knowledge of English and at least B2 level German

Proposed Time for the NGO Mobility Program

- April-June 2020 (3 Months)

The program will be implemented in Berlin, Germany