

Job Description and Expected Profile

- Experience in the field of refugee rights
- Experience in the field of human rights
- Knowledge of the CEAS and the Greek Asylum System
- Experience of journalism or advocacy
- Membership of the International Association of Democratic Lawyers or European Association of Lawyers for Democracy & World Human Rights through one of their National Associations
- Conduct casework, case management, and legal research for individual asylum claims, under supervision of Greek attorneys
- Conduct casework, case management,
- Legal research for individual asylum claims, under supervision of Greek attorneys
- Prepare applications for family reunification under Dublin III regulation
- Arrange appointments, give general information, and intake of new clients

Language Skills

- Fluent knowledge of English
- Fluent knowledge of Arabic, Farsi, French, Greek or Urdu is a plus

Proposed Time for the NGO Mobility Program

- April-June 2020 (3months)

The program will be implemented in Lesvos, Greece.