

Job Description and Expected Profile

- Fundraising
- Site development for conferences and retreats
- Partnership development
- College degree or work experience in one of the following areas:
 - Peace Studies
 - Conflict Studies
 - International studies or international relations
 - Educational Leadership
 - Educational degree/training
- Demonstrate a commitment to diversity, inclusion and cultural sensitivity
- Counsel and experience with social emotional learning
- Community organizing skills
- Strategic planning skills
- Social media background and skills
- Strong writing and communication skills

The fellow will take part in one or two projects below:

- STEAM summer camp programming for 2020
- Mothers Without Borders Initiative
- Strategic Donations Initiative
- The Peace Institute Bi-annual International Conference on Alternatives to Youth Radicalization

Language Skills

- Fluent knowledge of English

Proposed Time for the NGO Mobility Program

- April-June 2020 (3 months)

The program will be implemented in Italy, Milan.