

Job Description and Expected Profile – based in Los Angeles

Depending on the interest and expertise of the fellow, will be assigned to one of several projects in the research and evaluation group, education group, media, collection and immersive technology group or the operational group. The fellowship will focus on the skills and tasks associated with work in a department in a dynamic nonprofit environment.

- Contribute to realizing the outcomes of the institute through its programmatic initiatives
- Support the work of the institute through the completion of projects
- Support of project management and other operational duties, media development activities, data analysis, research, or education
- Have a university degree, some completion of an advanced degree is preferred
- At least three (3) years experience working or volunteering in an NGO with a mission aligned with/complementary to that of the institute
- Interest in exploring or previous knowledge in visual history and education

Language Skills

- Fluent knowledge of English

Proposed Time for the NGO Mobility Program

- April-November 2020 (3 months)

The program will be implemented in Los Angeles, USA.

Job Description and Expected Profile- based in Frankfurt

Depending on the interest and expertise of the fellow, he/she will be assigned one of several educational or collections projects in the global initiatives group in Frankfurt. The fellowship will focus on the skills and tasks associated with work in a department in a dynamic nonprofit environment.

- Undertake activities that directly contribute to realizing the outcomes of the global initiatives program through its programmatic initiatives
- Support the work of the institute through the completion of projects
- Support of project management and other operational duties, media development activities, data analysis, research, or education activities
- Have a university degree, some completion of an advanced degree is preferred
- At least three (3) years experience working or volunteering in an NGO with a mission aligned with/complementary to that of the institute
- Interest in exploring or previous knowledge in visual history and education

Language Skills

- Fluent knowledge of English

Proposed Time for the NGO Mobility Program

- April-November 2020 (3 months)

The program will be implemented in Frankfurt, Germany.